Games Will Far Offset Losses

M. S. U. Doctor Sees No Business
Loss Due To Highway By-Pass

Expressway-type highways and bypasses will provide Michigan residents and communities with gains far in excess of any losses
they will accrue, Dr. Frank Sug-gitt reported today. Suggitt head of the Department of Resource Development of Michigan State University, made his observation
as a result of a study to determine the effects of bypasses and expressways for the Michigan Good Roads Federation.

Suggitt said, reports of serious business depression "not here but somewhere else" proved 90 per cent groundless, upon personal investigation.
He said, he did not observe a single business that closed solely because of the diversion of through traffic to a bypass. The few businesses which were abandoned, he said, were due to normal
causes as death of the proprietor,
lack of capital, poor management,
fire and the like.

Suggitt said he also found several proprietors who blamed the bypass for a decrease in business.
Rather than the recent recession
or themselves for failing to meet the change by advertising, and new business methods.

"On the other hand," Suggitt said, "numerous businessmen have told me that they anticipated loss while the bypass was first being discussed, but once the road was completed, they found business
was better than before."

"Others say that the bypass has
caused them to work harder to
get local trade, but once they got
it, they found it more dependable
and easier to serve."

was better than before."

"Others say that the bypass has
caused them to work harder to
get local trade, but once they got
it, they found it more dependable
and easier to serve."

He said some road-oriented businesses will fold up. In the long pull, however, Suggitt predicted great gains for most businesses and communities.

The communities will see immediate gains in a number of ways, Suggitt said.

"Relief from traffic hazards and congestion will be the first and most obvious effect of diverting through traffic to a bypass. For local residents this will make a community more desirable. In Spartan, for example, local residents petitioned the State Highway Department to relocate M-37 around town in order to get rid of through traffic. They held a special election on the question and it carried by a 7-1 margin.

"Improvement of parking for local residents and people who desire to shop will be another immediate effect of the bypass. It is already apparent that most home town folk elect even more parking space than is available in many communities, so this situation will improve."

"As population continues to increase, expressways will hasten
the already-underway decentralization of some major cities. Communities within fifty miles of a major city, or central city, will become commuter cities, or suburban satellites. Some of these communities will be shocked in the next decade to find that housing and commercial development
have doubled the size and tax valuation of the town," Suggitt said.

He said that the city of Brighton, which is located at the junction of US-16 and US-23, is in the middle of such growth at present. The city of Portland, located between Lansing and Grand Rapids, off US-16, is another one of many which can expect major growth in the not too distant future, also.

HOME AGENT'S NOTES

Have you ever thought of rating yourself as a meat shopper? How would you answer these four yes-
no questions?
Do you select meat early in the shopping trip?
Are you aware of the little-
known cuts?
Do you recognize quality signs?
Do you suit meat purchases to your home storage equipment?
A score of four yes answers gives you a high rating. And here are some hints to help you.

Deciding among meats early in the shopping trip may guide other purchases, because the meat choice often suggests what other foods will be suitable matches in texture and flavor . . . and in price.

Awareness of little-known cuts
can help you find meat bargains.
For example, the neglected shank
of lamb recently retailed at a low of 28c a pound, compared with the popular loin lamb chops at $1.35 a pound. Using the little known cuts not only promises economy but your spirit of adventure is challenged when you try new ways.

Knowledge of quality signs helps you match your purchase to culinary use. Self-service of prepackaged meat, and the accompanying disappearance of the butcher as counselor, increases the need for self-reliance in quality detection.

And last, the space and the storage time limit for meat in your home refrigerator and/or freezer can guide you as you decide how much meat to buy. Buy no more than you can store easily and use
while it is in top condition.

Maximum storage time—for meats in the refrigerator varies according to cut. Steaks, chops and roasts will keep well in the coldest part of your refrigerator
for three days; freshly ground meats, liver, heart and other variety meats for two days and table
ready meats, like frankfurters, bologna and liver sausage a maximum of seven days. These periods are a guide to help you serve your meats when the quality is best. Holding meat beyond the proper storage time may mean loss of quality and possible spoilage.

Present Industry Spells Potential Growth Source

Among its present industries, a community has its greatest potential for industrial and economic growth.

Assistance which will keep industries and encourage them to expand can be given by every resident. Like people, industries have problems at some time. It is not only the responsibility of the community to assist in solving such problems, it will work to their material benefit. The big industries of today started small and expanded many times to reach their present size. They are now highly important to the economy base of the places where they are located.

Most industries have possibilities for expansion. If they are appreciated by their home community, the chances of local enlargement are high. If local residents take an interest in them, are proud to have them and recognize their problems, industries will have a feeling of being wanted.
A considerate attitude on the part of the people will pay dividends
when industry expands locally.
There will be more jobs, increased sales in the stores and greater community prosperity.

Assisting industries to meet their needs is stressed in the fifth of a series of advertisements sponsored by Michigan Press Association and Michigan Economic Development
Department on industrial development
being carried in the Crawford County Avalanche and 300 other daily and weekly newspapers in Michigan as a public service.

This week's advertisement fea-

appreciating what we have now
in industry, facilities and resource-es.

YOU DON'T MISS WATER TILL THE WELL RUNS DRY

We take water for granted. But let the well run dry, and we're in trouble. It's like that with the industries that provide work for our people. We take them for granted. But let one of these industries close and we realize how much it has meant to us.

Industries already present are the community's greatest potential for economic growth. Help your local industries to expand and you will share in the rewards that follow bigger payrolls, more retail sales, and greater community prosperity. Become familiar with the needs of industries in your com-

Inflation, A Weapon . . .

Writing in The Saturday Evening Post of October 18, 1947, a foreign correspondent of long and varied experience, tells of the "Silent Weapon of the Cold War." Its name is a grim one: Runaway Inflation. The purpose of his article is to show how inflation can "break the human spirit as completely as famines, earthquakes, wars or revolutions." He has watched it in France, in Eastern Europe, and elsewhere. And he has seen it clear the way for Communist rule in the aftermath of World War II, just as it did in Russia after World War I.

Runaway inflation, as Mr. Bess points out, has been experienced only twice in this country—during revolutionary days, and in the Confederate South. "But," he says, "Soviet strategists have given notice that they expect our luck to change, partly because of our own indifference to economic matters in general and to inflation in particular; partly because of the Kremlin's need economic warfare against us."

Mr. Bess points out, as he sees it, has shifted from arms race to this kind of warfare. That was a purely logical shift from the Communist viewpoint. Lenin, himself, predicted that economic warfare would be a more potent weapon than armed force in bringing about world-wide Bolshevik revolution. To quote Mr. Bess: "The Soviet creed is fashioned upon the basic belief that Communism will sooner or later stand triumphant upon the ruins of rival economic systems which have been bankrupted by a combination of their financial irresponsibility and unrelenting Soviet assaults against them."

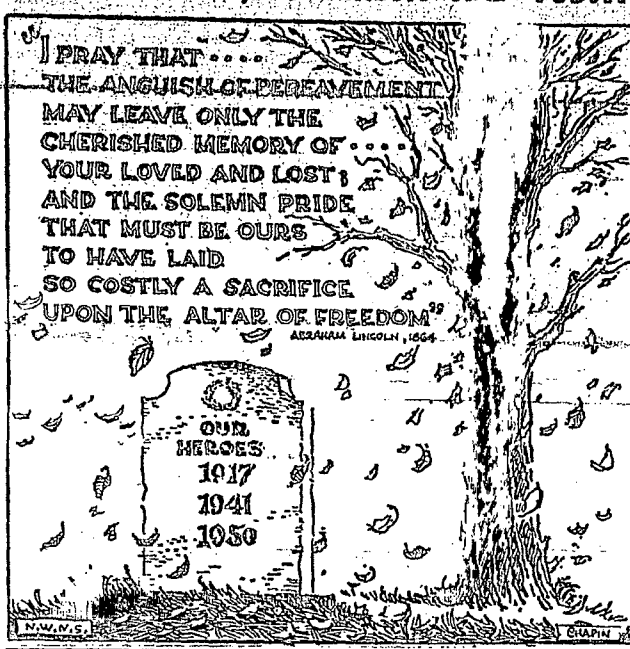

Here Mr. Bess points to a matter of great importance which is little known in this country. Soviet economists are orthodox and conservative. They "have stubbornly clung to such old-fashioned notions as balanced budgets and sound money." And their domestic economic measures are almost all of an anti-inflationary type.

Mr. Bess describes, in detail, a number of examples of the silent weapon of runaway inflation has brought them into Communist hands. One is China, where a Chiang Kai-shek's government had small understanding of economic principles and failed to undertake operative currency reforms. The result was the devaluation of money values. Even American business groups welcomed the Red Armies into Shanghai, figuring that the Reds couldn't be any worse than Chiang so far as business interests were concerned. Mr. Bess comments: "Those Americans, like their Chinese counterparts, soon discovered how wrong they were. But it was too late."

Hungary provides another tragic example. There, during the postwar occupation, the Russians "unleashed the wildest currency inflation on record." The printing presses ran day and night. Before the war the Hungarian pengo was worth 20 cents. At the peak of the inflation, Mr. Bess was able to get thirty-three billion pengos for a dollar. The savings of the nation's most solid citizens were thus deliberately wiped out.

What is the significance of all this to us? Mr. Bess gives his answer to that question in the concluding words of his article: "Financial irresponsibility in the United States would be just what would suit Moscow best. If

VETERANS' DAY, YESTERDAY AND TODAY

The Russians can force the pace of American spending to the point where inflation gets out of control, they can forget about such weapons as intercontinental missiles. For the ability of Americans to wage economic warfare on even terms will depend upon whether the American Government and people can guard against further serious inflation in our own economy. The entire non-Communist world depends, as never before, upon the solidity of the American economic and financial structure."

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

November 7, 1935

Election of officers and directors was the program at the Kiwanis meeting Wednesday. A fine crowd was present. Previous to the meeting the board of directors held a session when they elected to membership several applicants, as follows: Charles E. Moore, Rev. Edgar Flory, and Royal A. Wright. The new members were presented at the meeting and on next Monday evening will be given formal honors. The term as president of Dr. Clarence G. Clippert expired at that meeting. It was due to him that a Kiwanis club was organized in Grayling. He gave generously of his time in the work of the club and made its first year a signal success. It would have been the wish of the members to have him continue for another year, however, he felt that the honor should be passed around. The splendid work done during the past year by Emil Giegling made him the outstanding candidate for president, and he was given the unanimous vote of the members. The following members were elected to serve for the following year on the board of directors: Charles E. Moore, Farnum Matson, Dr. C. R. Keyport, Fred R. Welsh, T. P. Peterson, Roy Trudgeon and C. A. Miller.

Attorney Charles E. Moore and family were in Petoskey on business Saturday. Mrs. Grant Thompson and children returned the last of the week from St. Helen, where they had been visiting for some time with Mr. Thompson.

Tuesday evening a group of Grayling ladies drove up to Gaylord to be in attendance at a party given in honor of Mrs. Henry Libke, by her mother, Mrs. S. D. Dunham of Grayling. About fourteen were present and the evening was spent informally, after which a very fine lunch was served. Mrs. Libke was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brady spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bartlett, at St. Ignace. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gross and daughter Sally and Miss Dorothy Swanson spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Stewart Rutledge at Roscommon.

Mrs. David Kneff and Mrs. Martha Pearsall spent Sunday visiting at Vanderbilt, at the home of Frank Ingerson.

Charles Parkinson, of this city, was the lucky winner of the $5.00 drawing, which is held every month at the Horseshoe Lake Dance Pavilion.

Mrs. Oscar Hanson returned Friday from Lansing and Detroit. She was accompanied home by Miss Ella and Miss Margrethe Hanson, who remained until Sunday.

Mrs. Emil Giegling was hostess to her Contract club Wednesday afternoon at a very delightful luncheon. Mrs. Harold MacNeven held the high score for bridge. This was the first party of the season for the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jerome of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hermann and two children of Grand Rapids spent the weekend with Mr. M. C. Bates. Miss Betty Jerome returned to Pontiac with her parents, having resigned her position here.

Friday, Mr. and Mrs. John Brady had as their guest their niece, Mrs. Francis McLeod, and husband of St. Ignace. They also enjoyed a visit last Wednesday from Mrs. Richard Bartlett who was on her way home to St. Ignace from Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Don Reynolds entertained eight little friends of her son Junior at a Halloween party Thursday afternoon at her home. The afternoon was spent playing games and Mrs. Reynolds served a nice lunch. The little tots were very much pleased over Halloween horns which were given as favors.

Mrs. Liland Smock and sons, Donald and Howard, and Jack McClain, spent Tuesday in Cadillac. Liwyn Doremire, of Camp Wa-Wa-Sum, is the brand-new night waiter at Lovell's Restaurant and is competing with Floyd Loskos who is holding down a similar position at the Plaza Grill.

John LaMotte, of Beaver Creek, is having a new cabin erected on his property on US-27, getting ready for the hunting season. Miss Irene Randolph, who had been employed at the Grayling Bakery, has accepted a position as bookkeeper for Schweizer & Wilson, beginning her duties Monday. With the new plate glass windows installed in the bakery, building and patrons busy inside, the place is going to be spic and span when the Grayling Bakery opens next Tuesday, as Peter Lovely, manager, announces that it will.

Mrs. Rasmus Jorgenson, Mrs. Robert Ziebell and Mrs. Jensen Ziebell, were joint hostesses at a lovely shower last evening, honoring Mrs. Wilhelm Nielsen. A delicious lunch was served, the table being centered with a bouquet of pink flowers guarded by candelabra holding pink tapers. Mrs. Nielsen was showered with many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Trudgeon were in Lansing Monday in consultation with the Department of conservation concerning our winter sports park.

Frank Barnett, chairman of the County Road Commission, reports that 75 men and 19 trucks would begin work on the north river road, beginning today.

Chief Hogsett and Charlie Gehring of the Detroit Tigers stopped off in Grayling Wednesday. While at Schoonover's garage Fuzzy Reynolds got both Tiger stars to give him their autographs. They were returning from a hunting trip in the north.

G. Jerome Kessler has just been appointed public administrator for Crawford County by the State Public Administrator in the Attorney General's office. His duties will be to administer estates in cases where there are no heirs, and such other matters that may come up for the state. The late R. S. Babbitt held this position which has been vacant since his death.

A very gala affair, Monday evening, was the miscellaneous show given by Mrs. George Skingley and Mrs. Herbert Stephan at the Hayloft in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stephan, Jr. There were about one hundred merry makers, and all joined in an evening of fun and hilarity. Dancing was enjoyed to the able accompaniment of Mr. and Mrs. William Misner with special violin numbers by Misses Marian and Virginia Skingley. At 11:30 the dancers assembled for the grand march with Mr. and Mrs. Alva Stephan escorting the bride and groom; ending in a large circle the young couple were seated in the center and presented with an unusually large assortment of gifts. Later a polka lunch in buffet style was served.

Minnie Love supplied in the fourth grade Monday during the absence of Miss Irving.

A. C. Olson and Harold Rasmussen together brought in a deer the first of the week. Also Frank Mills and George Meisler were lucky to bag a nice deer.

Will Heric went to Boyne City last Tuesday. He will be back to work and will also play in the band there under his former bandmaster, E. G. Clark.

The Revs. Jos. Herr of Jackson, Burke of Battle Creek, and Cullane of Yale, were visitors of Fr. Riess for a day. They are hunting deer at Lovells.

Miss Zina Smith gave a very nice Halloween party at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. Bobenmoyer last Thursday evening. The many friends of Mrs. John K. Hanson gathered at her home Saturday afternoon and evening to extend congratulations and good wishes upon the anniversary of her birth. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson are always very hospitable and this occasion was as usual a very pleasant one.

Congressman Loud has gone down to defeat before Roy Woodruff, progressive, the enterprising mayor of Bay City.

A number of residences have been built in Grayling during the past summer and we wish to compliment Grant Shaw on the fine home he has built for himself and family on Michigan Avenue.

C. Stillwagon and family left Tuesday for West Branch, being called there by the serious illness of the former's father.

Hjalmer Mortenson, who has been ill at Beaver Creek with pneumonia, is convalescent. Miss Fern Hanna was the guest of Claire Parker at Forest View Farm over Sunday.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Called "Passing the Buck"?

Sitting on my porch the other night, Buck Hanson told about a nifty new warning light for his tractor. It gives him protection on the highway at night—cost, just 75 cents.

Buck made the light from an old windshield wiper motor with a tailight attached in place of the wiper blade. He clamped the motor on to the rear of the tractor.

When the motor is hooked to a hot wire and grounded, the light moves back and forth and sure attracts attention. (The wires work off a battery, a headlight—anything "hot.")

From where I sit, it's a tradition in America for neighbors to get together and exchange ideas. We're a better country for it. Tell you what—drop in on the next session on my porch, have a glass of beer and join in. If you'd rather have a glass of milk—fine! Respecting people's preferences—that's an American tradition too.

Michigan drivers go 1st class!

It's CONCRETE . . . so it will last you 50 years, and then some!

When they give you modern concrete—they're giving you the best. Michigan highway engineers have always known this—that's why so many of the State's big roads are concrete.

And that's why concrete is the preferred pavement for the new Interstate System—the biggest highway project ever planned.

Concrete pavements have outlasted other types 2 to 1. The new roads will do even better! Fifty years from now, cars will be rolling smoothly on this same concrete . . . and the same surface. (It won't have been resurfaced 4 or 5 times!)

Concrete grows stronger with age—doubles in strength in 20 years. Other paving materials act just the opposite. Sun, rain, freezing can't hurt concrete.

That's why it stays flat and smooth riding—doesn't get rippled and wavy. That's why, too, upkeep costs stay so low—up to 60% lower than for asphalt. Yet, surprisingly, concrete roads usually cost no more than asphalt built to carry the same load.

Engineers build for your safety. Concrete means a skid resistant pavement . . . and one that lets you see better at night.

A modern concrete road is a solid investment in a lifetime of pleasant driving for you.

ELMER T. HAIRE DIES AT BAY CITY — Elmer Thomas Haire, retired New York Central System railroad engineer, died Friday evening, Oct. 31, at Bay City General hospital. He lived at 503 Burton avenue, Essexville and spent his summers at Lake Margrethe. He had been ill for a year.

Born in St. John's, Mich., May 17, 1892, he had made his home in Bay City for 50 years and was a member of First Methodist church, the Brotherhood of Railroad Firemen and Engineers, the NYC Pioneer association, and a life member of Portsmouth lodge 190, F. and A. M.

Surviving him are: his widow, Edna E.; three daughters, Mrs. Oscar Cerny, Bay City, Mrs. A. Horan, Essexville, and Mrs. William Horan, Grand Rapids; and a son R. J. Haire, with the U. S. government in Korea. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Gehring Funeral home. The Rev. Donald P. Lomax officiated and entombment was in Oakwood Mausoleum, Saginaw.

History of Bible Is Motion Picture Theme

Jerome translates the Bible into Latin. "Our Bible: How It Came To Us" is the theme of the motion picture which will be shown in the Grayling Baptist Church on Tuesday, November 11th, at 7:30 p. m.

Produced by the American Bible Society, this sound film sweeps across the centuries from the formation of the Old Testament to the present time. It shows the Scriptures in use in Palestine in the time of Jesus, how the letters of Paul and the Gospels were written and used in the early Church; then comes the thrilling story of how the Bible has come down to us through the ages, will be shown in the Grayling Baptist Church on Tuesday, November 11th, at 7:30 p. m.

The Senior Class of Frederic High School is sponsoring a Kenney Roberts stage show at the Frederic High School on Friday, November 7th, at 8 o'clock. The stage show lasts an hour, and will be followed by a dance to be held at the school from 9 until 1 a. m.

Prices for the show and dance are set at 75c for adults and 35c for students. Come on over for an evening of fun.

BROWNIE SCOUT NEWS — The Brownie Halloween party was held October 28th with 23 Brownies and 6 visitors present.

The picture is authentic, clear and sincere. More than 250 actors participate in the film, these include men and women of many races, colors, and historic periods.

From ancient Hebrews to American Sunday School children of today, used in the preparation of the film were the services of many scholars and staff workers and the resources of the Morgan Library, Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Cloisters, and some libraries abroad.

Showings of the film both in this country and in England have brought forth the highest praise, and it is the hope of the American Bible Society and those who show it that this picture will stimulate more wide-spread reading of the Word of God.

Everyone in Frederic and the surrounding communities is invited to see this inspiring film; it will make you appreciate your Bible better and make you read it more.

Woman's Club — The Grayling Woman's Club held their regular meeting at the Club House on November 3rd, at 8:00 p. m., presided over by the president, Mrs. Bud Gould. Reports of standing committees were given and everyone was more than pleased with the wonderful work which has been done by the decorating committee.

Mrs. Lester Welch, Mrs. Dick DuBois, Mrs. Bill Moshier, Mrs. Walter Moshier, Mrs. Robert Bovee, Mrs. Mary Chee, Mrs. DuBois, Mrs. Phil Smith and Mrs. Lewis Stillwagon. These girls have painted, sanded, patched, etc. and are now ready for the paper hanging crew. We also want to thank Mr. Joe Hull, Dick DuBois, Matt Edson and Les Hunter for painting the ceilings and doing the electrical work for us. Also thanks to Bill Moshier for the gift of an electric range and to Carl Burns for the wallpaper.

The following ladies will be at the Alumni lounge at the school to take care of babies while the mothers vote on Nov. 4th, Elaine Peterson, Mary Peterson, Young and Virginia Chubb, Florence Borchers, Laura Moshier, Ann DuBois and Vi Burns.

Mrs. Walter Truettner, Mrs. Phil Smith, Mrs. Beulah Neafie and Mrs. Gould will drive voters to the polls.

On Dec. 2nd, at 10:00 a. m. Mrs. Carl Richardson, international Chairman, will give a coffee hour at her home to raise money for the "Help-Salvage" project which the Woman's Clubs are sponsoring all over the United States.

Michigan's countries are Greece and Vietnam. By this project, we will be able to help some boy grapple with a Vocational School in Greece to get tools and equipment to start his trade, thus helping him to help himself. If there are any ladies who would like to come to the coffee hour and do not belong to the Woman's Club, call Mrs. Carl Richardson, Mrs. Phil Smith, Mrs. Esther Bailey or Mrs. Ted Stephan.

The money-raising group headed by Lora Gould and Ann DuBois for the price for having earned the most money for the decorating project. The prize was given by Wilma Ludeman and will be a luncheon at Camp Shoppenagon. If you have ever eaten at L. Ludeman's, you know what a treat is in store for this group.

We were very happy to know Beattie Douglas is home from the hospital and hope she comes back to us soon.

Mrs. Pat Kleiss gave a demonstration of the "Stuffer Magic Couch" and posture and weight control which was enjoyed very much by the ladies.

Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Joe Cinciala, Mrs. Paul Dosch and Mrs. Larry McNamara.

Michelson Memorial Church News — Sunday, November 23, has been set as the date for opening Michelson Memorial's new educational building. All organizations of the church are collaborating in plans for the opening ceremony.

The November meeting of the Woman's Society was to be held Tuesday evening, and the Matilda Baumann Circle meets Friday with Mrs. T. P. Peterson. The church has announced an "Adventure in Prayer" beginning at 7:30 Wednesday of this week, open to all members of the church and others interested in deepening their spiritual life of the church and community.

The annual Harvest Supper will be served Thursday evening of this week, starting at 6:30. At 7:00 there will be a meeting of the board of directors of the Men's Club. The church school staff meets at the home of Mrs. Glen Penton Tuesday, November 11.

About nine members of the Senior Youth Fellowship are holding a study of the Gospels Sunday afternoon and evening.

R. L. D. S. News

"IT IS WRITTEN" when we, as Bible students find the words, "It is Written" may we take note as to "what is written, why, and WHEN." The Grayling branch of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (not former days) have been making history. We may be small in number as was Gideon's army when He saved Israel from the Midianites. Faith and obedience were wonders with Gideon. We found this experience of power as our two newly ordained brothers conducted their services at our little church last Sunday.

Norval Stephens served the Communion at the eleven a. m. hour. Norval's theme: "The Angel's Message." Special music, "Spirit of God Descend upon my Heart," was soloed by Mrs. Norval Stephens. For the evening service John spoke, selecting for his theme, "Living Your Religion." "Hold Thou my Hand," was soloed by Patricia Fowler; Elder Roy Newberry assisted the men at each service and Mrs. Flora Vandenberg was at the piano.

The church branch welcomes the family of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Holcomb which includes their two daughters, Jean and Darlene. They have much to offer to the church and the community. They bought the Ernie Low's home on US-27 going north from Grayling.

"Fear Not" was a presentation, by the Zion's League for their Worship last Monday night. The members worked on plans for their Fish Fry. Watch the paper for the date.

The Women's Department will meet with Mrs. Ernie Low on Thursday, Nov. 6th, at 1 p. m. This will be at their new home on US-27 not too far south from the Big Wheel restaurant.

A Worker's Conference is called to meet at the church Friday at 8 p. m. The teachers and department heads are urged to attend. Elder Newberry is in charge. The Devotions for church school worship, were presented through a drama, "A Beggar No Longer", and in charge of the Junior Highs, Primaries, and Mrs. John Knecht, Junior High teacher.

Why "plaster" your home with insurance policies?

Look into our new 1-policy, 1-premium home-protection package

The big thing about home insurance is protection... not the number of policies you carry. We can provide you with fire, theft and liability insurance all in one policy... with one premium. You may save as much as 20%... or get more protection than separate policies give... or both. Call for details.

The Town Too Tough To Die

Scenes from Tombstone, Arizona

Western fans everywhere will recognize that "The Town Too Tough To Die" refers to Tombstone, Arizona. Tombstone obtained its unusual name from its founder, Ed Schieffelin, who was told that all he would find in his prospecting there would be his tombstone, meaning the Indians would kill him. Late in 1877, he made his discovery of silver and named the location "Tombstone."

Once the mightiest city between El Paso and San Francisco, Tombstone is overflowing with history. The annual Heildorado, held in October, features re-enactments of notorious gun fights and other highlights of Tombstone's history.

"The Town Too Tough To Die" became a slogan due to Tombstone's survival of reverses which made ghost towns or many former western mining camps and cities. A Restoration Commission is working to preserve and restore the landmarks for which the town is famous.

Tombstone is a community with modern homes, beautiful and high ranking schools, a city-owned hospital, municipally owned utilities and airport.

Nestled on a mesa between the Huachuca and Dragon Mountains in southeastern Arizona, 30 miles from the Mexican border, Tombstone is famous for its health giving climate.

Heildorado Days call to attention such historical spots and events as "The Crystal Palace," the "Bird Cage Theatre," the O.K. Corral; the Earp-Clanton feud; and of course, Boothill Graveyard.

Landmarks of the last frontier include Tombstone City Hall, built in 1882; the Epitaph Office, oldest continuously published newspaper in Arizona; and Schieffelin Hall, built in 1881, one of the largest adobe structures in the United States. At one time it was the most famous theatre between El Paso and San Francisco. The Old Cochise County Court House, built in 1882, one of the most magnificent structures on the Western frontier, and the center of legal life during the early days of the territory.

Six County People Aided By D. V. R.

Six Crawford County people were rehabilitated into paying jobs during the last fiscal year. Howard R. Harvey "Rehab" counselor in this county for the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, Department of Public Instruction, just released the information.

Harvey reported that 21 disabled persons have received service aimed at preparing them to hold jobs. These services cost $1,348 in Crawford County during the year.

The D. V. R. expenditures in Crawford County, Mr. Harvey explained, were for the following services:

1. Medical examinations and
2. Treatments, including medical and surgical services, $445.
3. Appliances such as artificial limbs, braces and hearing aids, $534.
4. Hospitalization, for correction of defects, $261.
5. Training, in school or on-the-job, $151.
6. Other services, such as tools and transportation, $210.

The Crawford County area received benefits far greater than the amount of "Rehab" funds spent. Harvey pointed out that the average weekly earnings of people rehabilitated in Michigan last year was $52.72. Before rehabilitation they earned $6.69. Applied to this county, it indicates an estimated annual increase of $14.00 in wages earned by the six persons rehabilitated here. The cost of rehabilitation was $1,348.

According to Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, it is estimated that the Department's Division of Vocational Rehabilitation actually rehabilitated about 30 per cent of those who come to need the service each year.

Dr. Bartlett stated, "Michigan is 44th among the states in the per capita amount appropriated for rehabilitation. The national average is 12.1c per person. Michigan spends 8.6c."

"The federal government is encouraging every state to rehabilitate more of their disabled citizens into employment," Dr. Bartlett added, "it offers federal money to the extent it is matched with state funds. This year, close to $700,000 of the federal funds allotted to

SKINNER - BRADY

Miss Sally Brady of Detroit and Miss Elaine Rochette served the wedding cake.

To receive her guests Mrs. Skinner wore a suit of green, with yellow pompon mums for her corsage. Mrs. Brady was dressed in a blue suit with a white pompon corsage.

The new Mrs. Brady is a graduate of the class of 1935, Grayling High School, while her husband graduated in the class of 1940. He also has served two years with the army.

On the honeymoon trip Mrs. Brady chose a grey tweed suit with black accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses. They spent five days in the upper peninsula, and are now making their home at 14006 Santa Rosa, Detroit.

Guests here for the wedding were from Detroit, Ionia, Traverse City, Gaylord, Frederic, Rose City, Pontiac, West Branch, Birmingham and Mt. Clemens.

County Cancer Chairman At District Training School

Chairman of Crawford County Cancer Society, Mrs. E. R. Burns, accompanied sixteen ladies of Roscommon Cancer Society, to a meeting of interested Volunteer Workers of the American Cancer Society's Michigan Division on Wednesday, Oct. 29th at the Holland Hotel in East Tawas, to participate with the Josco County Unit of the Society, in a Fall District Training School.

This was the sixth in a series of workshops which have been held throughout Michigan, with localities in District 7 joining with local groups. Mrs. Burns, of Roscommon, Alpena, Alpena, Arenac, Cheboygan, Chaska, Montmorency, Ogemaw, Oscoda, Otsego, Presque Isle and Roscommon.

"One of the objectives of these training schools, is to familiarize volunteer workers with all phases of the Cancer Society's three-way programs in research, education and service, with an emphasis on the principals of leadership and organization," Mrs. Burns said.

In further comment, it was pointed out that although much progress has been made in the field of cancer, much more needs to be done to help save the tens of thousands who die needlessly from cancer.

Coordinating the general sessions was Dr. Emil Pfister, Department of Speech, Central Michigan College at Mt. Pleasant; Mrs. Bernard Sargent, of West Branch, Field Representative for the District; Mrs. E. C. Wither, of Niles, Past Division Chairman for Volunteer Training and Recruitment.

Highlights of the afternoon meeting was talks by Dr. Walter A. Stryker of Wyandotte General Hospital on the latest trends in research and his wife, Dr. Joan Stryker who spoke on the Palancolou smear test. With this recently developed test doctors are detecting cervical cancer in the earliest stages. Dr. Joan stated that of 2,000 tests taken in 1957, sixteen cases of cancer were found, which otherwise would not have been discovered during standard procedure for physical examination.

Income Tax Tips

several major changes were made:

(1) It is now possible for certain closely held corporations taxable income to be taxed directly to the shareholders and, therefore, avoid the burden of the double tax, first on earnings of the corporation and then on dividends paid to the shareholders. However, the corporate shareholders must make their election prior to calendar year 1958.

(2) It is now possible for small closely held businesses to incorporate for the benefits attaching to the corporate form without incurring the penalty of the corporate taxes. Such fringe benefits include: (a) limited liability, (b) owners, as corporate employees, can now receive retirement benefits and other insurance, etc., the cost of which is a deduction to the corporation.

(3) Depreciation provisions were liberalized greatly in that an additional allowance equal to 20% of or up to $10,000 of the cost of assets (either new or used) acquired after December 31, 1957, on a joint return of husband and wife, the additional allowance can amount to as much as 20% of $20,000. This allowance is in addition to ordinary depreciation, and is allowable in full in the year of acquisition no matter when the assets are acquired.

(4) The net operating loss provisions have been revised to provide for a three year carryback of net operating losses incurred in taxable years beginning after 1957.

The above provisions will be explained in more detail in subsequent articles. Also other aspects of the Federal Income Tax Laws will be discussed, and answers to tax questions will be published. Address all inquiries to the Avalanche. However, questions should not request answers to specific tax problems should request instead, the covering such a problem. (Watch for future articles subsequent issues of the Avalanche.)
